IMPACTING ENTREPRENEURS

As a father of five in the Republic of Congo, Barrot often felt stretched to cover his family’s expenses. With a car in need of repairs, his taxi business was struggling—and his dream to invest in his children’s future felt out of reach.

Then, Barrot’s sister told him about HOPE Congo.

Barrot used his first loan to fix his taxi. “Without HOPE, I don’t think I would have made it. Thanks to their assistance, I am now free,” he reflects.

Now, Barrot dreams of more. “I plan to invest in expanding my business. ... I would like to establish a workshop for tire repair services.”
